IB Diploma From their regular Abitur subjects IB DP candidates choose six subjects to be their IB subjects, three standard level subjects (SL) and three higher level subjects (HL). These six subjects have to cover the six subject groups as displayed in the table above. Diploma candidates need to attend TOK and CAS.

IB Diploma Courses For those students who do not want to go for a full diploma of six IB subjects, there is also the possibility of doing IB Course(s). They can choose up to five subjects of those listed in the table. All regulations from the subject sections apply to IB DP Course candidates just the same. They do not, however, need to attend TOK and CAS.

IMPORTANT: The IB diploma programme is embedded in the Abitur programme and vice versa. Therefore, any changes, as well as opting out of the programme, can be made at the very end of a term only and must be adequately communicated to and confirmed by both the IB DP coordinator and the Stufenleiter in charge. The school may decide to expel a student from the IB DP programme at any time prior to the final and binding IB registration in November of year 2.
